

BEGINNING OF TROUBLE IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—Wendell Phillips has taken up the cudgels against the Prussian monarch and his Minister. But he out-Bismarck's Bismarck in the fury of his assault, yet he lacks the Prussian diplomat's symmetry of calculation. While the Prussian Bismarck foresees the triumphant result of a fight with France, but fails to recognize the Republican party in the citadel of its strength—the sympathies of our German population. Wendell Phillips is always making trouble. He is generally ahead of his party and his partisan friends, like a comet among the Pleiades. He cultured the anti-slavery phantasm until it assumed the proportions of a giant in strength and intellect. He has taken hold of the pro-temperance movement and is waging war against all beer-drinkers and imbibers of alcoholic stimulants. He is the recognized front, so far as Massachusetts is concerned, of the so-called labor reform crusade, and finally, in attacking Prussia, and through her all Germany, he plants a poniard in the heart of the Republican party. Perhaps that is exactly what he means. But if the end justifies the means, and that end be annihilation of the Republican phalanx, horse, foot and dragoons, the Boston agitator has taken a step in the right direction. We are of opinion, however, that the Republican leaders will not think favorably of this anti-Teutonic operation of their eloquent but erratic ally. Trouble is beginning in the Republican camp.—New York Herald.

It is said that Frederick the Great, while taking a walk one fine morning in Berlin, met a small-sized Israelite who, in that era of prejudice and persecution, endeavored to avoid him. The bluff old Frederick ordered him to stop, and grimly inquired why he attempted to run away? "Because I am afraid of your majesty," was the answer. "Infernal scoundrel," cried the King in an outburst of passion, "I want everybody to love me, not to fear me," and lest the offence should be repeated, he punished it by a sound thrashing on the spot. The attitude which Prussia now holds towards France is in some respects not dissimilar to that of Frederick in this incident above related. Prussia desired the good will of France, but received only hatred and sour looks. There was no fear on either side; but when France threw down the gauntlet, Prussia took it up without a moment's hesitation. The result has thus far been disastrous to French arms, and Prussia is now determined to whip France into a respectful if not affectionate frame of mind. Will she succeed? This is the vital question.—New Orleans Times.

TRUST WHAT TIME HAS SANCTIONED.—The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may, in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses, extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony, the reputation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as an antidote and cure for many ailments, is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world, innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile, the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward, like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day, Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in Christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed, there is no chance for the "suckers." Sept 16 4

ASIATIC CHOLERA IN CHINA.—ALMOST EVERY CASE CURED WITH PAIN KILLER. [From Rev. R. Telford, Missionary in China, now visiting his home in Pennsylvania.]

DEAR SIR: During a residence of some ten years as a missionary in Siam and China, I found your Vegetable Pain Killer a most valuable remedy for that fearful scourge, Cholera. In administering the medicine, I found it most effectual to give a teaspoonful of Pain Killer in a glass of hot water, sweetened with sugar; then, after about fifteen minutes, begin to give about a teaspoonful of the same mixture every few minutes until relief was obtained. Apply the applications for medicine and remedies. Bathe the stomach with the Pain Killer, clear, and rub the limbs briskly. Of those who had the Cholera, and took the medicine faithfully in the way stated above, eight out of ten recovered. Truly yours, R. TELFORD.

If attacked with the Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cramp, Colic, don't delay use of PAIN KILLER. FUXCHOW, CHINA.

DEAR SIR: During a long residence in China, I have used your invaluable Pain Killer, both in my own family and among the Chinese, and have found it a most excellent medicine. In the summer of 1862 and '63, while residing in Shanghai, I found it an almost certain cure for Cholera, if used in time. Indeed, using it in a great many instances, I do not remember failing in a single case. For three years, I have been residing in this place, and have been obliged often to fall upon my own stock in case of sickness. The Chinese come to us in great numbers for medicine and advice. Though without medical knowledge ourselves, the few simple remedies we can command are so much in advance even of their physicians, that we have almost daily applications. We allow them to come, because it brings us in contact with them, and opens a door of usefulness. In diarrhoea, colic, vomiting, cholera, coughs, &c., your Pain Killer has been my chief medicine, yours very truly, T. F. CRAWFORD.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Family Medicines. Sept 4 411m
